

The Tékumel Foundation

August 4, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

The Tékumel Foundation has been established to “support and protect the literary works and all related products and activities surrounding Professor M.A.R. Barker’s world of Tékumel and the Empire of the Petal Throne.”

As a consequence of this, all projects related to Tékumel need to be submitted to the Tékumel Foundation; this includes current as well as potential future creative efforts. The Tékumel Foundation, acting on my behalf, will review and approve work for use with Tékumel and Empire of the Petal Throne, and any other efforts involving my intellectual property.

If you are already producing material for Tékumel, the Foundation will be in touch with you about your efforts. If you are considering producing material for Tékumel, please submit your work to the Foundation through its established channels. Please do not attempt to contact me directly to obtain approval for your work; the Foundation was established to assist me in this matter, acting as my literary executor.

Thank you for your understanding in all of this, and happy gaming!

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "M.A.R. Barker". The letters are stylized and cursive.

Prof. M.A.R. Barker